Time Running Out to Buy State Fair Rodeo-Concert Tickets with Gate Admission to State Fair Included

ALBUQUERQUE, NM – Time is running out to purchase tickets for the 2011 New Mexico State Fair Rodeo-Concerts with State Fair gate admission included in the ticket price; concert tickets purchased by Wednesday, August 31, 2011 include gate admission to the Fair, while tickets purchased thereafter will not.

“The time to buy your Rodeo-Concert tickets is now,” said State Fair Interim General Manager Dan Mourning. “We’ve got a spectacular lineup, spectacular prices, and, if you get your tickets by next Wednesday, admission to the Fair is free!”

This year's Rodeo-Concert Series at Tingley includes six performances of action-packed, Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA)-sanctioned rodeo coupled with great concerts, which adds up to the best dollar-for-dollar entertainment value in New Mexico.

Tickets for all Rodeo-Concerts went on sale Saturday, July 30 and are available at all Ticketmaster outlets, www.Ticketmaster.com, and at the New Mexico State Fair Box Office (open Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.). As of September 1, 2011, the State Fair Box Office will close and operations will move to the Tingley Coliseum Box Office (open Monday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.). All rodeo-concert events begin at 7 p.m.

In keeping with The New Mexico State Fair's long history of family-friendly pricing, this year's rodeo-concert series are still the best deals in town for premier entertainment. Rodeo-concert series tickets are priced at $16 and $18 bench, $25 and $27 chairback and $35.50 and $37.50 box.

Rodeo-Concert tickets purchased by Wednesday, August 31 include gate admission to the Fair.
